The Annual Staff of 1975 would like to dedicate this year's Bear Tracks to Mr. Albert Azinger. During his five years as principal of Yorkwood Jr. -Sr. High School he has labored over bus schedules, budgets, discipline problems, modular scheduling, and all the other paper work that his position is subject to. He has acted as referee between students and students, students and teachers, and teachers and teachers. We have often complained but seldom expressed our appreciation. The Annual Staff would like to express their thanks and congratulations to Mr. Albert Azinger by dedicating this year's Bear Tracks to him; and we hope that his future years will be as prosperous and successful as his stay at Yorkwood.

This Is Yorkwood . . .

"The things my mother taught me!"

"I'm a big boy now."

"What'd I do now?"

"Get down from there Miss Starman."

"Go ahead, ignore me."

"Miss Starman said to do it this way."

Getting a head start.

Some teachers can be a real bear.

So Is This . . .

Six Million Dollar Man

On duty

The Wizard of Ob Mobistober Bobimm

"It's so simple."

Designed for a woman with a style of her own.

Last year's Miss Teenage America didn't think she had a chance, either.

Sigh!!

"How would you like to be in my shoes?"

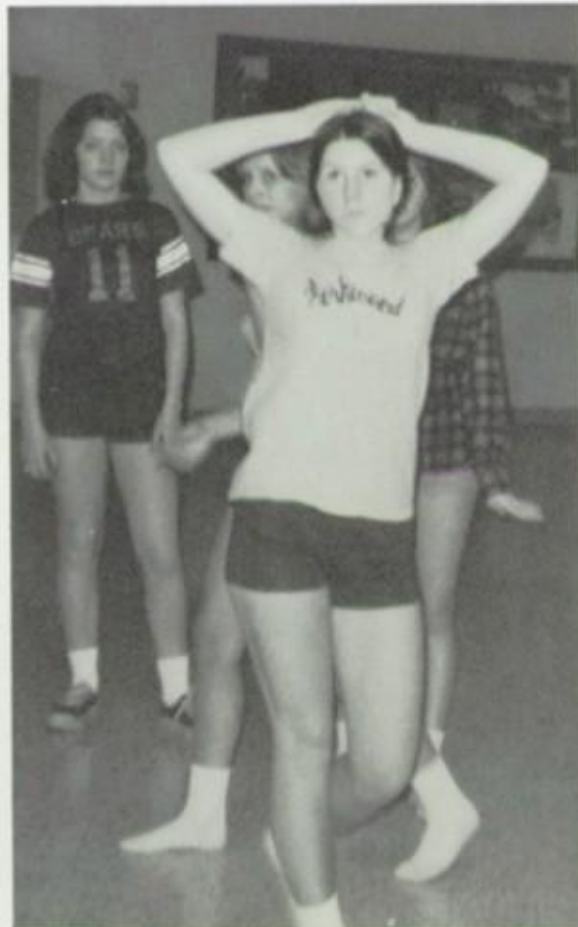

"Now I lay me down to sleep."

"Let us unite in a word of prayer."

And More Of The Same.

Take Me Home . . .

On October 5, 1974 we arrived and all my dreams of homecoming unveiled before my eyes. The wagon wheels by the wall, the kerosene lamps on the tables, and corn stalks around the room, I knew this was our Country Roads.

1975 Jr. Sr. Prom . . .

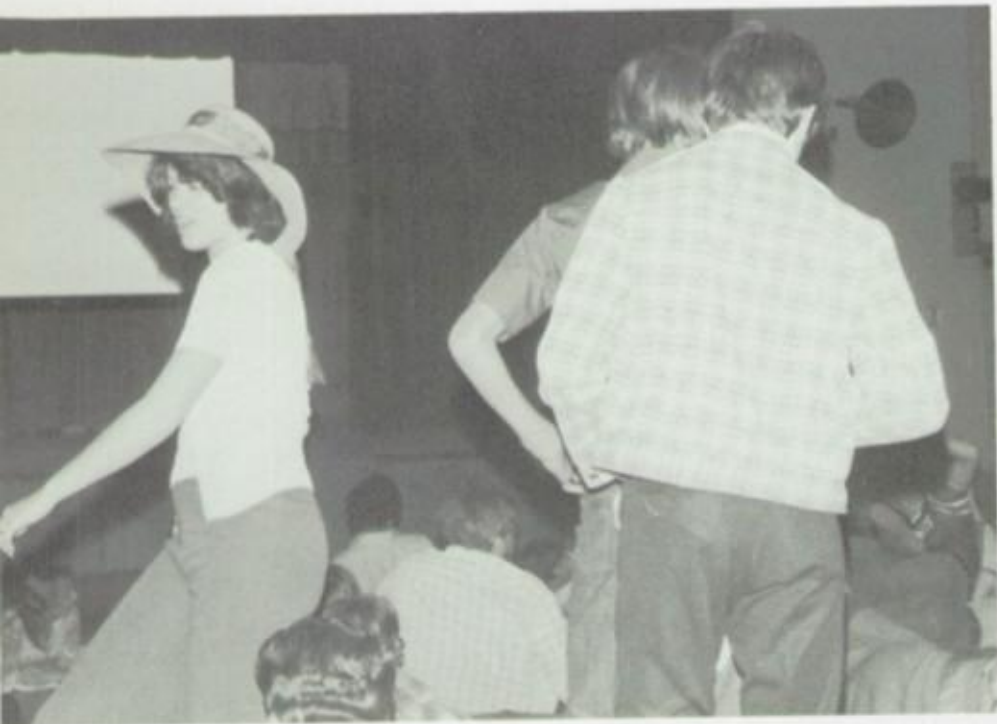

"Stairway To Heaven . . .

The juniors presented the seniors with a new style of prom this year. It began at 9:30 p.m. with a buffet-style supper at the American Legion building. At 11:00 p.m., Tom Boock, junior class president, read the prophecy for the seniors. Rodd Hall, senior class president, then read the seniors' wills. Addison Grace provided music for the dance which lasted until 2:00 a.m. Following the dance, there was a police-escorted motorcade to the high school. Everyone assembled in the gym where the movie "Tales from the Crypt" was shown to those who managed to remain awake. At 5:00 a.m. rolls and juice were served in the cafeteria. Everyone went home to rest before departing for the final part of prom, a picnic at Crapo Park in Burlington. After the picnic everyone returned home having participated in Yorkwood's first all-night prom.

Ladies and Gentlemen, on March 12, 1975, the Student Council of Yorkwood High School held their first fund-raising Circus. Thanks for a fun time.

The tense nerves, the dry throat, and the anticipation of the Student Council President and Vice President candidates, were all ended when it was announced that Jeff Reynolds and Diana Stuart received the offices.

A new style of marching, summer morning rehearsals, long evening rehearsals marching miles around the track and down the field, pinwheels and diamonds made Yorkwood Marching Band exciting and flashy. Mr. Bimm spent much time writing the band shows and twice as much effort producing them. The pom pom and twirlers worked hard to round out the half time entertainment. The highlights of the season were Charleston, Light My Fire, Joshua, and the band show that amazed even Mr. Bimm, "Salute to the Twenties". Next year looks even better: "Band, forward march, forward, lift."

On May 2 a few of the Drama Club members took a trip to Chicago. They left the High School at 8:30 a.m. Friday morning. The group consisted of Cheryl Krug, Madena Stauffer, Jane Hennenfent, Jeff Reynolds, Tom Boock, Joe Stauffer, Debbie Woods, Brenda Ricketts, Jay Ballard, Ms. Metzner, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Azinger. They stayed at the Pick Congress and attended three plays; Under Papa's Picture, (with Eve Arden), Two Keys, and the Magic Man. They also visited the Sears Tower and several foreign restaurants. On Saturday, May 3, they returned home at 3:30.

Nap Time

As future teachers we can honestly say: "You learn by doing." And we have. By tutoring at the other area schools during our free time, we have learned about the importance of patience, understanding, and most of all, love that is necessary in order to teach, and that is necessary in order to learn.

Well, this is the year! And Mrs. Melvin's hard-working Spanish Club members are deserving. That's right! On May 31, Mrs. Melvin and her crew take-off to the land of the afternoon Siesta; Mexico. For 16 glorious days, they will visit and explore those colorful places they've often read and heard about for two years. On June 15, their explorations will end in Mexico City, but their memories of the people, places, and fun will return home with them and last a lifetime.

TRIBUTE TO THE SPEECH TEAM

Here we are once again
winners of the Bi-County Tournament.
More practice, more work,
but still lots of fun
And then on to District to prove we're still #1.
With help from Jeff, Joe, Rodd and Diane,
And Mrs. Johnston as our favorite
backer and fan,
with 3rd Place behind us and lots of luck too we're on our way to Sectionals to show what we can do.
With a little disappointment, and
a little bit of tear,
We promised ourselves that we'd
WIN IT ALL NEXT YEAR!

Practicing For Future Years

"Who are they looking at?"

"Is it the right note?"

"Have you got it yet?"

"Make sure you don't lean on the back of your chair!"

"It takes great concentration."

"Who are you waving at?"

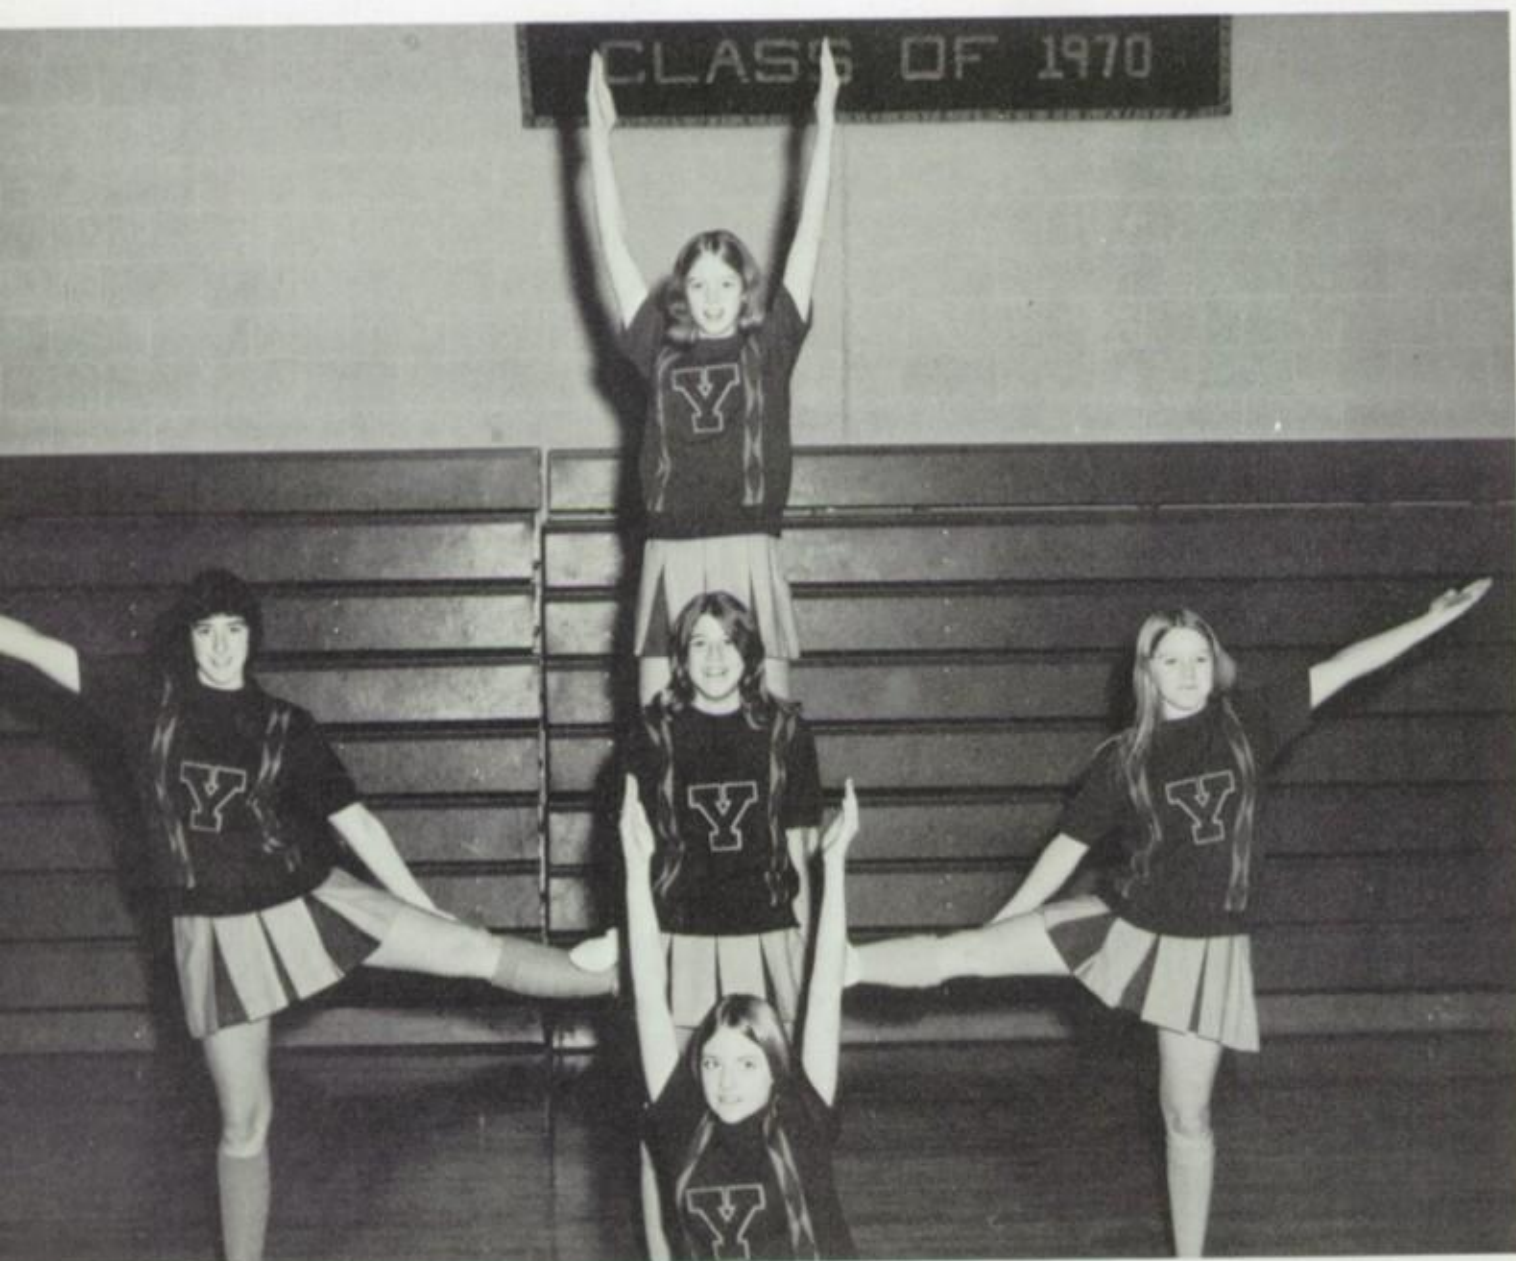

"I hope everyone is watching."

This year's Jr. High student body was lucky enough to have a hard working Student Council. They started the year off with a bonfire and through the year they held two roller skating parties, a valentine's dance, and a 50's dance complete with a movie and sock hop. The Jr. High can be proud of their Student Council, and hope that they have set a new tradition for the rest of the Jr. Highs in the future.

"Posing for the picture?"

"Just waiting around."
